PRESS RELEASE

The organisers of the Open World Amateur League Championships in Paris would like to announce that due to unsurpassed support and overwhelming entries all accommodation in the Disney Resort has been sold out for the event.

The organiser has received over 1000 entries to date and entries are still being accepted.

Please contact us to help you to make alternate hotel arrangements, if you would like to participate in this spectacular event.

We look forward to hearing you and to welcome all participants to Euro Disney, for what will be an event to remember as the first truly Open World Amateur Championships

Yours sincerely,

Sammy
