Back to the Future!

Next year it's all in one again

Every regular visitor of the Dutch Open still knows two names: the Bonte Wever and Slagharen. Many are the memories and great was the shock when in the year 2000 this venue burnt down to the ground.

Henny v.d. Most was good enough to change our present venue, De Smelt, from an icehall into a beautiful ballroom within months, so the festival could continue that same year. An amazing achievement!

It was only hours before the start of Dans2000 that all was found in order and ready to go. One dream remained: to have a hotel and a ballroom in one.

This dream will come true next year!

Not anymore in Slagharen, but here in Assen it will arise and set roots. From next year on the famous facilities of the Dutch Open are back in place!

But even better than ever before:

- the famous ballroom, bigger and more elaborate than in Slagharen.
- the hotel inside the venue, but with all new rooms, completely up to the standards of nowadays.
- and of course all other facilities that were so wellknown.

Rooms are built whilst we are now having our festival and a limited amount of rooms will be ready next year. We, as organizers of the Dutch Open, are very happy with this development and are sure it will make the festival even more attractive than before for the years to come.

This year you can see the beginning of a major change at the entrance, next year you will be surprised again when the old "Bonte Wever feeling" can be recandled.

Do not forget to book in advance if you want to be sure of being "in the house"!
Our reservation-desk will be glad to help you.
